

CONTACT:
Deirdre Michalski
Editor, Blogger & Travelista
Deirdre@TastesAndTravel.com

(February 21, 2013) Orange County, CA- TastesAndTravel.com is pleased to announce a new Series on France which is now available on the web site. This includes articles and photography on the following travel-topics:

- ≈ Paris In Three Days Flat- Some special places to see.
- ≈ Paris Finds For Foodies- Exploring foodie finds in the city of lights.
- ≈ Paris for Claude Monet Lovers- Enjoying Impressionistic art around town.
- ≈ Paris- Honoring Julia Child
- ≈ Paris- Our Favorite Restaurant in Town
- ≈ River Cruising Through The South of France

The next two, and final, in this Series will include a one-on-one interview with the Executive Chef of our cruise ship, and a five day tour of all the hilltop towns in the Luberon area.

TastesAndTravel.com web site is headquartered in Orange County, CA. The site covers topics including: Travel- Explore resorts, inns and cruises and destinations from around the globe—and local “backyard” getaways too! From historical haunts to “sneak away” local hide-outs. Dining & Cooking- from the “newly opened” to “charming classics.” It’s a menagerie of restaurants and cooking fun. Lifestyle in The OC- from local gift ideas--- to garden tours, and local spots for a one day local adventure. Wine- From wine & cave tours, to the romantic setting of the vineyards and wineries themselves. Each one has their own personality. From Woodenville, Washington, to Sonoma/Napa, to Burgundy, France, and even Beijing, China. Tech-Na-Travel- New Apps and webs sites and software programs that make travel easier and planning more fun. From social sites like Pinterest and Hip Geo, to cool web sites, tools, and Apps you just can’t live without!

##